

Please do not cancell this" Do Not Call Act"-this is an invasion of my privacy especially during dinner time. I feel the phone should only be used in my home the way I want it to be used and not by unwanted callers.